WINE OF THE MONTH

28

Trinch, Pierre & Catherine Breton, Bourgueil 2014

This delicious Bourgueil is from young vines, harvested by hand into small baskets & vinified to extract the primary aromas. Trinch is particularly yummy in 2014 as the sunny weather at the end of the season brought ripeness and lush fruit but without excess weight or tannin.

Cotes du Rhone, Vin Gourmand, Dauvergne Ranvier, France				24.9

Passori Rosso, Veneto, Italy				25.9
Rich, smooth red wine, showing plum & dried fruit followed by notes of spice & vanilla. In Autumn the branches of the vines are snapped to prevent further nutrition reaching the bunches of grapes so that they dry out & concentrate in the late sun, making this a mini Amarone in style

Elegantly rich with notes of ripe plum, cherry jam & cocoa followed by a hint of spicy vanilla. Full-on & intense

Blackcurrant, liquorice, mulberry & savoury notes: full-bodied, well-structured with mineral and spice notes. Graciano is one of the indigenous grapes of the Rioja region before it was swamped by the higher yielding Tempranillo - so this is what Rioja would have tasted like over a century ago
Atamisque Serbal Cabernet Franc, Tupungato, Mendoza, Argentina				29.9
Red berry & bramble, on a fruit-driven palate that is juicy & ripe. Perhaps unusual to see this grape, the cousin of Cabernet Sauvignon, on its own, but well worth the effort as an interesting alternative to Malbec
Vavasour Pinot Noir, Awatere Valley, New Zealand				29.9
A luscious & aromatic wine, which features black cherry, plum & anise spice: the finish is elegant, long & velvety. Intensely flavoured but delicate in weight - like Burgundy's finest
